30TH YEAR—No. 40

FERRY SERVICE CONNECTING WITH ROAD TO NEW ORLEANS.

Traveling Between New Orleans and Coast Reduced by Ferry Service. From Chef Menture to Pearl-ington to Bay St. Louis.

With the installing of ferry service across Chef Menture out from New Orleans and from Indian Village to Pearlington, Bay St. Louis and the balance of this beautiful Coast country dotted with its several cities, are brought closer, and a dream long indulged in has at last been realized.

This brings the subject of a straight road from New Orleans to Bay St. Louis more to the fore, and possibly to an earlier realization.

Parties who have made the trip tell The Echo that the present arrangement is admirable. The trip is delightful and interesting, and many of the summer residents returning to New Orleans rather than ship their car by rail or water are using this route, the auto carrying members of the family and much of the baggage paraphernalia.

The coast may not have fully realized it but New Orleans is one of the greatest assets it has in connection with the visitation of winter tourists. Many tourists are drawn to the coast by reason of its proximity to New Orleans, and whole rafts of tourists who come to New Orleans visit the coast before returning to their homes.

The ferry service from Chef Menture to Pearlington is a great thing and the coast rejoices over it. Following is an announcement appearing in the Times-Picayune:

"Ferry service between Chef Menture and Pearlington, Miss., inaugurated Monday by the East Pontchar-train Ferry, Inc., puts Gulf Coast points within 42 miles of New Orleans or two hours by automobile.

The ferry service is daily, it is announced, leaving Chef Menture at 8 a. m., returning from Pearlington at 2 p. m.

Bay St. Louis is 20 miles from Pearlington and is connected by a good road. The distance from New Orleans to Chef Menture is 22 miles.

The Pearlington service was inaugurated at the suggestion of the Louisiana Motor League, and it is expected that, with the additional facility, more New Orleans motorists will be attracted to the gulf coast.

McCormack Schools to Receive a Gift of $500,000 from Wm. McColegan.

McCOMB, Sept. 22.—McCormack city schools are to receive nearly $500,000, the gift of William McColegan, in the name of McColegan brothers and sister, for the establishment and endowment in perpetuity of a trade or vocational high school as a part of the city school system, with $150,000 for a building and $250,000 for the endowment, and probably this is the largest gift ever made to a city school system in the history of Mississippi, and one of the largest in the history of the entire south.

Biloxi Elks Plan Winter Program.

Biloxi Lodge of Elks have planned a big winter program which will begin October 5th, when they contemplate having Past Exalted Ruler Sullivan, of New Orleans; District Manager Clyde Moss, of Bogalusa, and Miles Burns, of New Orleans to address the local members and create enthusiasm in a membership drive.

WHAT DO DAMERON-PIERSON, ET AL. GIVE MISSISSIPPI?

The following editorial from the Newton County (Miss.) Record of last week's issue, calls attention to a common violation of a law in nearly every county in the state, a law which has been duly tested and upheld by the Supreme Court. The attention of the District Attorney ought to be the means of a remedy in many instances and in the absence of more drastic measures where necessary. The article follows:

There is a law in Mississippi to protect Mississippi interests just as other states have similar laws to protect the interests therein, which provides that no printing for county and state officials shall be sent out of the state, and none shall be sent out of the county, where the county has a printing office equipped to do the work right. In the proceedings of the board of supervisors of Newton county for July, The Record notes an allowance made the Dameron-Pearson Co., for stationery for $18.51; and in the proceedings of the board this month, there is published an allowance for Foot-Davis Co., of Atlanta, Ga., for $189.44 for record books. In the same proceedings is another account of Dameron-Pearson Co., which was continued. The law makes it a violation for the officers to buy this stuff out of the state, and the attention of the president of the board of supervisors was called to this some time ago, and he said the board did not wish to violate the law, but the fact remains that they are still violating it, and they may regret it. There is no need to send out of the county for stationery and out of the state for record books, as state concerns can supply them just as cheaply, and it is up to the county attorney and district attorney to see that the law is complied with.

Heavy Export of Lumber at Gulf Ports Predicted.

PASCAGOULA, Sept. 22.—Indications point to a prosperous fall and winter business for the Gulf coast region. Many of the interior saw mills have resumed operations to meet the growing demand for export and domestic lumber. It is estimated that several million feet of boards, deals, scantlings will be shipped from Gulf ports to South and Central America with heavy shipments of lumber and cross ties to New York and Boston. The sawmills of Greene county are in full operation. Farmers of the Bayou Casotte district are planting large acreage in onions. The adaptability of the soil in this locality for growing vegetables has inspired the truckers to produce bumper crops of early spring onions.

Thousands of Dollars to be Expended in Biloxi's Building Program.

Thousands of dollars are to be expended in Biloxi within the next few days and more improvements in sight in the construction of residences and business houses, together with general repair work as shown by building permits issued to contractors at the city hall. This is an indication of considerable business activity which will give a number of people employment in the future.

PREPARATIONS MADE FOR TEN THOUSAND GUESTS AT RALLY.

Vardaman Club Orders Immense Store of Supplies for Gathering of Ten Thousand.

The Vardaman club of Jackson is preparing for a great rally and barbecue at the state fair grounds, on September 29, and express themselves as confident that one of the greatest crowds ever assembled in Jackson will be on hand.

The committee in charge of the barbecue state that they have contracted for 8,000 pounds of beef, 2,500 pounds of mutton, and have selected Gurwood Guice, a well-known barbecue to take charge of the cooking.

Mr. Guice has had a pit dug 260 feet long directly behind the agricultural building and had hauled a general supply of hickory wood on which the meat will be prepared for the table. The committee have also contracted for 5,000 loaves of bread, five barrels of pickles, and great quantities of pickles and salad and 500 pounds of coffee. They have also purchased 10,000 each of paper plates, cups and napkins, so as to be able to serve a barbecue dinner rapidly and in a convenient way. The contract let for the service of a 32-piece brass band has been filled. The speakers stand is being erected directly in front of the grand stand fronting the race track.

Gulfport School Levy 5 1/2 Mills—Bay St. Louis, 4 Mills.

Gulfport, which has one of the best schooling systems in Mississippi, has had a school levy of 5 1/2 mills for the past two years. It is estimated that in comparison with other cities in Mississippi the tax levy is one of the lowest. This information was secured by those interested in school work for the purpose of enlightening the public from the necessity of an additional one mill to the school tax levy which will remedy the present crowded conditions. The Bay St. Louis School levy is 4 mills.

GOVERNMENT ACCEPTS TEN MILLION DOLLAR HOSPITAL AS GIFT OF EDWARD HINES, MILLIONAIRE CAPITALIST, CHICAGO.

A hospital which is said to be the finest of its kind in America was turned over recently for the relief of disabled war veterans, and patients are now being transferred there from the government institutions. It is the Speedway Hospital in Chicago.

Its size may be inferred from the statement that there are six miles of corridors. The cost was $10,000,000 and was built with private funds, being intended by Edward Hines, a wealthy lumberman, as a memorial for his son, Edward Hines, Jr., who fell in France. Not the least remarkable fact about the hospital is that Mr. Hines only succeeded in getting the government to accept his gift after a struggle of nearly three years and an expenditure of $200,000 attorney's fees.

The ways of congress are past finding out. Lobbying is usually designed to get something from the government, yet, here is a case where long persistent lobbying was required to persuade the government to accept something which would save it money and sorely needed. It is a repetition of the experience that J. P. Morgan had when he offered his London residence to the government for an embassy.

The belated acceptance in the present case, while doubtless pleasing to the donor, is rendered ungracious by the condition which accounts for the hospital's name. The condition is that the institution must not bear the name of the son who gave his life for his country, and whose body now goes to help his living comrades.

NOTES OF THE WEEK FROM CENTRAL SCHOOL.

Thursday, Sept. 22nd. Central School of the Holy Society will hold its meeting Friday, September 23rd. The year officers will have charge of the meeting. The new officers were elected, after which an interesting program of thirty minutes will be given. A report of the election and doings of the Society will be presented for next week's Echo.

The boys are showing a lively interest in organizing a basketball team for the coming season. Judging from the spirit manifested and the enthusiasm already displayed in athletics, great things are expected. The smaller boys will have class foot ball teams, but there are not enough big boys in the school to have a varsity team to play the other schools.

The matter of athletics in the Central school will be fostered as far as practicable, and along this line it is proposed to give much attention although not at the expense of the class room.

The enrollment of the school is gradually being augmented, and every endeavor is exercised in an effort to develop the school to the highest degree of efficiency.

While nothing has been given out officially, it is understood the main holidays occurring during the scholastic term will be appropriately observed by the pupils in the rendition of suitable programs, thus bringing to the young minds what the days celebrated stand for, and the entertainment will be a means of bringing the patrons and public in general in closer touch to the school. The public is invited to visit the different schools at any time. In fact, a special invitation is extended to one and all. We are striving to get the utmost results, and our efforts will bear inspection at all times.

Prof. McCluer has inaugurated a system of visiting the other schools of the city as was carried out in former years and with much success. While he is principal of the Central school, as superintendent he proposes to keep in touch with the other city schools, white and colored, and the other schools welcome his visits. It accelerates interest and inspires greater efforts.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS ORGANIZATION IS GENUINE.

Writer Says the Great Secret of the Knights of Columbus is That Like the Masonic Order, It Has No Secret Whatever.

Biloxi, Miss., Sept. 18, 1921. Editor Daily Herald:

It will be opportune if you will please publish the genuine obligation taken by all Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus. Note the fact that we take no oath. The Knights of Columbus is not an oath bound organization. The members merely accept obligations. The Knights of Columbus is not even a Catholic organization, but an organization of Catholic men. The distinction is vital. Catholic church organizations are societies such as the Sacred Heart Society, The St. Vincent de Paul Society, The Holy Name Society, The Children of Mary Society, and the Catholic Welfare Council. The Knights of Columbus organization is a fraternal and insurance society. The great secret of the K. of C. order is that like the Masonic order, it has no secret whatever. Here then, is the obligation, (not oath) accepted by Fourth Degree Members of the Knights of Columbus:

"I swear to support the Constitution of the United States. I pledge myself fully on my duties as a citizen and to conscientiously perform such duties entirely in the interest of my country and regardless of all personal consequences. I pledge myself to do all in my power to preserve the integrity and purity of the ballot and to promote reverence and respect for law and order. I promise to practice my religion openly and consistently, and to so conduct myself in public affairs to reflect nothing but credit upon our Holy church to the end that our country prosper to the great honor and glory of God."

Faithfully Yours,

REV. NELIUS DOWNING.

COMMUNITY FAIRS FOR HANCOCK COUNTY.

While the Hancock County Fair will be held in Bay St. Louis on October 6th and 7th, it is well to remember that a number of community fairs will be held over the county. As the Echo has readers scattered over Hancock County and the paper is pretty well read over the county, it is well to again publish these dates in order that the people will remember, and lest they forget. The community fair is always interesting. From the place where it exhibits it is then transferred to Bay St. Louis to the Big Fair. Following are the dates:

October 3rd.—

Sellers, Kiln, Dedaux, Caesar.

October 4th.—

Leetown, Flat Top, Kiln Camps, Aaron Academy.

October 5th.—

Logtown, Waveland, Gulfview, Bay St. Louis.

Patrons of de Montluzin drug store miss the presence of their prescriptionist, Mr. Clarence Roland, who has been detained at home the latter part of the week by the serious illness of Mrs. Roland, a victim of acute indigestion but who is now better.

Miss Corinne Gleason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Gleason, while out in her father's car, was the victim of a painful accident, in which she was severely shocked and cut about the face. She was with her father when he was forced to take the side of the street in quick effort to escape a collision, when his car bumped into a telephone pole. The sudden impact threw the young lady from the front seat over the wind shield, with results as stated. Her face was severely cut in several places and the services of a physician was necessary.

The pier of the Yacht Club Amusement Company, head of Washington street, will be open tomorrow night to the public, and it is expected that there will be a large number of ladies and gentlemen to enjoy the breezes and delights afforded at this popular recreation resort. The warm weather continuing the pier will attract many. A jazz band will entertain the public.

The property recently purchased from Paul Voorhies, and known as the Voorhies place, by the Society of Friends of the Divine Word, is undergoing considerable repairs and a thorough renovation, preparatory to the advent of the occupants who are soon due to arrive. Father Hike, representing the order, is here and generally supervising the work. The place will be used as a seminary, it is understood, and accommodations for about fifty young men are in process of preparation. Contractor Reginald Diamond has the work of remodeling the property.

PUTTING THE GULFPORT HARBOR BEFORE PEOPLE OF STATE.

Industrial Agent of the G. & S. I. Railroad, Captain J. J. Taylor, has been spending a day or two in Jackson trying to influence the Chamber of Commerce to join with Gulfport in an effort to have the war department appropriate about $185,000 for the improvement of the ship channel at Gulfport, and it is understood that Jackson will join forces to this end. Mr. Taylor explained that the war department had set aside the sum of $50,000 to do this work that is to widen and deepen the channel so that ocean going vessels may get in and out without trouble. It has been estimated that it will cost in the neighborhood of $200,000 to accomplish the results desired. The various towns of the state are being appealed to to back Gulfport in her undertaking and it is believed that all of them will do so. Great quantities of lumber and other Mississippi products pass through Gulfport to foreign countries and there does not seem to be any good reason why this one Mississippi harbor is not taken care of by the general government.

HOME BREW HELD ILLEGAL IN RULING BY COMMISSIONER.

Prohibition Commissioner Haynes Declares Head of Family May Make Non-Intoxicants.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—Warning that the making of intoxicating "home brew" is illegal was issued by Prohibition Commissioner Haynes. Numerous inquiries have been received recently, he said, concerning the home manufacture of fruit juices growing out of reports that a head of a household was entitled to make 200 gallons of wine a year under a permit. The attitude of the home brew question was defined by Mr. Haynes as follows: "Non-intoxicating fruit juices can be made in the home. Intoxicating wine, home brew, and distilled spirits may not be made. Two hundred gallons of non-intoxicating fruit juices may be manufactured tax-free by a head of a family registering with a collector of internal revenue. "This tax exemption provision has been the source of confusion. The effect of this is not only to allow the manufacture of 200 gallons of non-intoxicating wine free from registrations of the national prohibition act, but merely to allow the manufacture of 200 gallons of non-intoxicating fruit juices free of tax."

BILOXI-PACKERS DENY PLAN TO CURTAIL SHRIMP CATCH.

BILOXI, Sept. 19.—E. L. Dukate, president and Ernest Desport, secretary of the Gulf Coast Packers' Association, with headquarters in Biloxi, denied a meeting of the packers is to be held in Biloxi soon for the purpose of curtailing the catches of shrimp. This catch will be interfered with, however, by the oyster season which will open with the packers October 1 making it impossible for the plants, a number of which have ceased to pack shrimp, to pack both kinds of the seafood at the same time.

PROHIBITION LAWS DISMAL FAILURES, ASSERTS EDWARDS.

New Jersey Governor Likely to Make Senate Race on Wet Platform.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Sept. 19.—Governor Edward I. Edwards, of New Jersey, condemned prohibition as a flat failure and an instrumentality of vice and corruption in an interview today at the Ambassador, where he came to confer with leading Democrats on the gubernatorial and senatorial situation. In view of Governor Edwards' emphatic denunciation of the Eighteenth Amendment, astute political observers believe that he intends to make his campaign for United States Senate the seat of Senator Frelinghuysen on a platform for the repeal of the prohibition law.

Governor Edwards said: "Prohibition is a flat failure. It prohibits only one class—those who have not the price. The rich can get all they want. Farmers are still able to brew their own. All they have to do is to prepare juices and the Lord ferments them."

"As I see it, one of the principal reasons for the failure of prohibition is those that are entrusted with the enforcement of the law are the most persistent violators. I dare say that hardly more than a dozen men in congress have empty hip pockets and empty cellars. Prohibition is undermining the character of the people. It is making the United States a nation of liars and criminals, for every one who buys and drinks liquor in the sight of the law is a criminal. I have seen more drunkenness in the last two years than ever before. I am not opposed to prohibition because of personal deprivation, but because it is an infringement of personal liberty. I do not drink liquor nor other intoxicating beverages nor does any member of my family."

"I do not wish to be understood as favoring the saloon. I am glad that institution has been abolished, for it was the greatest curse of the nation. It was the saloon that the treating habit developed and resulted in drunkenness. Where wines and beer are served at the table, there is scarcely any intoxication at any time. Where cards are enjoyed in the family circle there is hardly any gambling. Prohibit alcoholic beverages and card playing in the home and members will go to excess when outside. No nation ever became great on a 'thou shall not' diet. There can be no character without temptation. Our Saviour preached this. No credit is due a young man or young woman who remains good because he or she is shut up in glass cases."

—Mrs. R. W. Taylor was hostess to a large number of guests at the beautiful beach home on Thursday afternoon, when she entertained at cards in compliment to her mother-in-law, Mrs. Thomas Taylor, of Baltimore, Md., who is here on a visit of an indefinite period. The affair was a most charming one in every appointment, and the prizes awarded the successful ones who pitted their skill against opponents were handsome and worthy of the beautiful affair. This is one of the more delightful and one of the larger attended affairs of the season.

AID BETTER BULL CAMPAIGN

Kansas City Chamber of Commerce Offers $2,000 in Prizes for Replacing Scrub Sires.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

An illustration of the earnestness with which various states and local organizations have taken up live stock improvement work, especially in connection with purebred sires, is shown by the work in Missouri. The extension service of the Missouri College of Agriculture started a better-bull campaign in January, 1920, and so successful were the results of the work during the year that the Kansas City chamber of commerce appropriated $2,000 to be used in cash prizes this year.

The prizes are to be awarded to the four counties which replace the greatest number of scrubs with purebred bulls, $1,000 being the first prize, $500

the second, $300 the third, and $200 the fourth. To obtain a prize, however, a county must replace at least 25 scrub bulls.

In an announcement of the contest received by the United States Department of Agriculture, state officials directing the work say they have concentrated on better bulls because they think the greatest good will result from efforts along this line. The announcement states that any county in the state is eligible for entrance in the contest. Awards will be made on the basis of the number of scrub bulls of breeding age replaced by registered bulls. A scrub is defined as one that is not registered or eligible for registry.

Any county which at any time during the year completes its work with 100 per cent purebred registered bulls will be entitled to first prize; but should more than one county show 100 per cent registered bulls the various counties will be entitled to first, second, third, and fourth prizes, respectively, in the order in which they complete the work. The counties competing in the contest are to form organizations, under the leadership of the county agent, to promote the work. All questions arising in the contest will be referred to a better-bull committee of the Missouri College of Agriculture for settlement, and the decision of this committee will be final.

A monthly report showing the name and address of the owner of the scrub bull replaced and breed of the registered bull in which an interest has been purchased will be forwarded on the first day of each month to the state project leader. At the end of the year a final report, certified by the county agent, will be sent in, giving the names and addresses of owners of scrub bulls which have been replaced, together with the breed, name, and registry number of each registered bull in which the contestants purchased an interest.

The Purebred Dairy Sire When Introduced into a Scrub or Grade Herd Soon Brings About a Phenomenal Change.

Daddy's Evening Fairy Tale

BY MARY GRIFFIN POWELL

THE DUCK-LEADER.

"Quack, quack," said Sir David Duck. "I am the leader. And we will all play follow the leader. It is a splendid game."

"Everyone must follow the leader, and I am the leader as I said before."

"A fine game, a very fine game, quack, quack," said Sir David Duck.

Sir David Duck was in a pond which looked as though it were of many colors.

The water was blue and green in color. There were pretty water weeds growing in it and the sky was looking in the water so that there were many colors which were reflected from the sky, just as a person can see herself reflected in the water when it is very clear.

The ducks all began to follow Sir David Duck, swimming along in pairs. They did not pay any attention to the beautiful colors which were in the water, and oh, such beautiful colors as there were.

They didn't pay any attention to the lovely sky above them, nor to the beauty about them.

"I am glad to see the way you are all following me," said Sir David Duck. "I am glad to see it in"

Quack, quack, we're all coming along," said the ducks.

"We should be so thankful to be free," said Sir David Duck. "In a house some distance beyond the house which belongs to the one who owns us, there is a wild bird being kept in a cage."

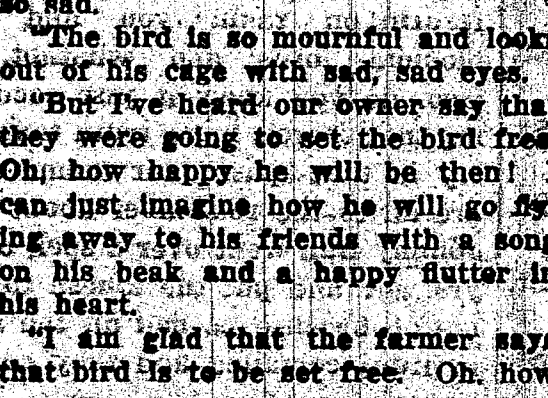

"The people caught the bird and caged him. And there he sits, longing to be free, longing to be out with his friends. It is different to keep a bird in a cage which has been born and brought up to cage life, like a canary, but even then it is nice to let the bird out in a room at times when the windows are open. For a canary would show his way, perhaps, if he got outside."

"But to capture a bird who had always been wild. Oh dear, that seems so sad."

"The bird is so mournful and looks out of his cage with sad, sad eyes."

"But I've heard our owner say that they were going to set the bird free. Oh, how happy he will be then! I can just imagine how he will go flying away to his friends with a song on his beak and a happy flutter in his heart."

"I am glad that the farmer says that bird is to be set free. Oh, how thankful we should be that we never have had to live in a small cage!

"We can quack our way through life, swimming in this lovely pond."

"Even though we don't bother much to admire the lovely colors and the beautiful weeds, we enjoy ourselves in our own duck way."

"We don't bother to admire the sky for it is so far away and ducks have never thought much about the sky anyway."

"The goldenrod flowers are coming out along the road nearby and they are making a great long procession of themselves with the help of the wild daisies."

"Yes, they're going to form a lovely parade, all of the goldenrod family and wild daisies, which can find room on either side of the road. They won't go marching ahead but they will stand quite still like a parade which only needs to be given the signal or sign from the band to start marching."

"The band won't give them the sign, and they don't mind as they simply want to stand as they are. It is most certainly very beautiful about here."

"But I won't bother so much about the beauty for I am only a duck after all."

"Quack, quack, the most important thing is the way you all follow me two by two. I don't like the game of still. Pond No More! Moving, for when a creature says these words the others must all keep quite still. I like the game of Follow the Leader, for that is the game we're playing now, and I'm the leader, quack, quack."

"And all the ducks swam after Sir David Duck, quacking as they swam along."

President Harding Thoroughly Enjoys "Roughing It" in Mountains With Edison-Ford-Firestone Camping Party

THERE are those who may claim recently concluded a unique camping excursion through the Maryland and West Virginia mountains. It was a genuine "back to nature" trip for the campers, who sought to shun as much as possible the spotlight of publicity which continuously plays upon each of them. The president was obliged to return after a brief outing because of the press of official business, but Mr. Edison, Mr. Firestone and Mr. Ford continued into the heart of the hills. While in camp, the president and other members of the party made their own bunk, assisted in the camp chores, went fishing and followed the usual routine of the tourist. One of their favorite recreations was horseback riding. Mr. Firestone brought his thoroughbred horse from his Ohio farm for the accommodation of his friends. It was astride one of these spirited animals that the president took his first ride in years. He expressed his enjoyment of the experience, and his physician has suggested that he continue the practice for his health.

Gulf Coast Service Now In Effect Will Be Continued All Winter

In response to a popular demand by Gulf Coast patrons, the management of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad has authorized the continuation of all commuters' trains now running.

This decision is brought about by the rapidly increasing number of year-round residents at points along the Mississippi Coast and as a measure helpful to the relief of housing conditions in big cities.

CITY ECHOES.

—Miss Madeline Eagan, who has been spending her vacation visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. L. Eagan, in Main street, has recovered from an illness and will return to New Orleans soon.

—Messrs. Jos. L. Gager and R. W. Sistrunk attended the automobile races at New Orleans a few days ago, the sport witnessed, by perhaps one of the largest gatherings ever assembled in New Orleans.

—Mrs. Leo W. Seal has returned from Hammond, La., where she visited friends, and attended the parish fair and other public activities while there. Mrs. Seal was the recipient of a number of social courtesies gotten up during her stay in Hammond.

—Mr. G. E. Temple, wide-awake and successful proprietor of the Bay Jewelry Store, will leave shortly for Chicago, where he will combine pleasure with business. He will visit friends and remain a while in the big city of the middle west.

—Mr. Simon L. Engman of this city was recently appointed notary public for the city by Governor Russell, who made no mistake in recognizing a young man of such sterling qualities and a citizen so generally esteemed. Mr. Engman has duly qualified. His friends congratulate him on his success and the honor which has come to so young a man.

—Misses Hermie Perkins and Mary Bourgeois have matriculated at Gulf Park College, near Gulfport, and will make daily trips to and fro. This is the first session of the new school and its enrollment represents pupils from all over the country. Its three story buildings of brick are imposing, and the grounds have been converted into a park that is very attractive.

—Prof. and Mrs. Leon McCluer and little daughter are here from Jackson, Miss., and have leased one of the McDonald dwellings in Carroll avenue. Prof. McCluer is superintendent of the Bay St. Louis city schools. Although a very busy man, he is getting acquainted as fast as his time will permit. He is a young and energetic man and well qualified for the trust.

—Local real estate market continues active. During the week, among other sales, Mr. Owen Crawford purchased the dwelling in which he and his family reside, and Mr. Sistrunk, adjoining, in Citizen street, purchased the place he and his family have been occupying. Both places were the property of Charles Sanger. The property is desirable and valuable, and both gentlemen have made good purchases.

—Mrs. R. W. Webb was hostess to quite a number of guests on Wednesday afternoon at the home in Carroll avenue, when she very pleasantly entertained at "five hundred." There were quite a number of tables and the guests, numerous, enjoying a most delightful afternoon, and introducing a series of card entertainments to be given during the fall and winter.

—Cashier George R. Rea, of the Merchants Bank, spent Thursday in Jackson, attending a meeting of the executive committee of the Mississippi State Bankers' Association, of which he is a member. Well and prominently known at Jackson, as well as over the State, he has many friends there who greeted him heartily.

—Mrs. E. J. Lacoste was called to Ponchartraine last week and returned home Saturday, having gone to her former home on a sad mission. Her brother, a young man of sterling qualities, and who had been active service overseas, while ill mistook a poison for headache powder and when medical aid had reached him he was beyond assistance. The aged father, Mrs. Lacoste and other members of the family have the sympathy of the community in their time of sorrow.

—Mr. Max Kohler, well-known business man at New Orleans, who has summered in Bay St. Louis the past several seasons, intends making this city his permanent family home. With that in view he has in the course of building a raised (7 ft) basement) dwelling of spacious and attractive proportions, on the beach front, south of the Firechurch home, and when completed will contribute liberally to that number of handsome homes for which Bay St. Louis is noted. Joseph Labat has the building in charge as contractor and builder.

—Prof. S. P. Powell, superintendent of the Kiln Consolidated School, reports the enrollment of the school as greatly increased. Teachers and pupils have gotten down to hard work and this season promises to prove one of the most successful. Prof. Powell further says that both pupils and teachers are striving to put on an exhibition at the county fair to be held at Bay St. Louis, October 25th and 26th.

—Mr. Grady Perkins has resumed his studies at the A. & M. College, Starkville. This is his second season and he returns to his work fired with ambition and urged on by the fruits of his success last season.

—The Gulfport Herald of Monday reproduced from last week's issue of The Echo the article referring to the success of Mayor R. W. Webb's administration and to the fact that he and his aldermen have placed the city of Bay St. Louis on a cash basis, and that it will not be necessary to borrow funds from the local bank as has been the custom. The Herald shows this is quite a record and is evidently proud of the fact, that this, one of the seacoast cities, is so successful in its internal affairs and to the city council, headed by Mayor Webb, belongs the credit. The Herald was quick to recognize and publish the fact, for which there is much thanks due.

—Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Solomon, residing in Dunbar avenue, have the sympathy of the community in the death of their little daughter, whose spirit took its flight to the heavenly realm Monday night. Dorothy was two years less only a few days, a child of unusual beauty and intelligence, the only daughter in the home and the visitation of the angel of death to the happy home is a bereavement unfathomable in its depths. Mr. and Mrs. Solomon are well-known, most estimable citizens. Mrs. Solomon was by a former marriage, Mrs. Larroux, and the sweet little creature who has gone before, to light and lead the way, was this only child of the couple. The Echo sympathizes with the grief-stricken mother and father.

—Miss Myrtle Mader, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Mader, was agreeably surprised Tuesday night at the home of her parents, "Kentwood," on the beach front, when a number of young friends assembled and spent the evening in dance, song and music pastimes. The occasion was Miss Myrtle's sixteenth birthday, too important and interesting a mile stone in one's life to let pass by unobserved, hence the "surprise" celebration. A birthday cake of unusual quality and beauty, made by Mrs. W. L. Bourgeois, a master in this art, presented to their granddaughter by Mr. and Mrs. A. Battistella, was admired and enjoyed by all present.

—Meeting of the teachers and trustees county association of Hancock county, held at the court house in Bay St. Louis last Saturday was one of the most pleasant and profitable meetings yet held. There were teachers and trustees from all over the county, every section well represented, and the work of teachers divided into sections will prove successful. J. D. Everett, of Lake Shore, was elected president; Mrs. W. W. Stockstill, of Bay St. Louis, vice president; T. E. Kellar, of Bay St. Louis, treasurer, and Miss Rita Breath, also of this city, secretary. The official proceedings of the minutes will be found on page 2 of this issue of The Echo. Next meeting will be held at Kiln, Saturday, October 15th.

—There is no organization in our city more popular than the Order of the Maccabees, and whenever that organization calls for assistance, there is always a number of our people, who rally to the cause. The Maccabees will give a benefit ball on the evening of Thursday, October 6th at the Woodmen of the World Hall, for the benefit of their building fund. Their affairs are always largely attended, and the announcement of any benefit is always a signal that carries. Music for the Ball will be furnished by the Maccabees Band. Admission for gentlemen, 50 cents; ladies, 25 cents. Committee of Arrangements—Frank C. Stevenson, chairman; Ferd Ramond, John Basford, A. F. Piper, Floor Committee, Simon L. Engman, Gerald Price, D. Lafontaine. Don't forget the date, Thursday, October 6, same date as the first day of the Hancock County Fair.

—Our people should not lose sight of the fact that the annual county fair for Hancock will be held in Bay St. Louis Thursday and Friday, October 6th and 7th, at the county courthouse and grounds. The Fair this year promises to eclipse all former efforts, and it is proposed by those interested to make it so as to insure this annual feature for our city and county. The dates are only a short time off, and it behooves all attending to make exhibits to "get busy." Reports to the management of the Fair are to the effect the rural exhibits will be on a larger and more comprehensive scale than ever attempted. The rural schools will also be well represented. It is expected that there will be a considerable number of exhibits from Bay St. Louis in order that all the prizes of honor and glory will be equally shared between city and country. The local schools ought to have liberal exhibits, besides there should be exhibits in the poultry department, culinary, textile, and art department. The Better Baby Contest should also come in for local attention.

—The Victory Airplane scored quite a success Wednesday night when the management presented Zane Grey's famous "U. P. Trail," from the book by that name. The crowd in attendance was one of the record-breaking of the season. It was a splendid picture and was well advertised. The Victory, Mr. Arthur A. Scalfie, manager, has had a fine season, and even though now exhibitions are only given three nights out of every week, a large attendance is noted, and many patrons have expressed regret that the weather forbids a showing in the air dome all the year round. The utmost order and decorum is carried on at any and all times, the place is spacious and the comfort of every patron is always in mind.

—Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Giering and their son have been occupying their beautiful California bungalow in Leopold street, which was built some time since for their own occupancy, and where they are "at home" to their friends. It is one of the most attractive homes of its kind in the city, and the well-kept grounds, of which there are not too many, adds largely to the beauty, home-like appearance and value of the place. Mr. Giering lived a number of years in California, will tell you of all that man has done for that beautiful land of the Pacific, but for the time being, they are here to stay.

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Perkins are here from New Orleans, attending the week visiting the home of their mother, Mrs. P. Tarrat, and Mrs. Burchard family.

—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Villere are domiciled at the dwelling in Ulm street, recently purchased from Dr. J. A. Evans, and will reside here permanently. Mr. Villere, connected with one of the largest banks in New Orleans, will make daily trips to and fro.

—Mr. and Mrs. John N. Stewart and family have closed their summer home on the beach front and returned to New Orleans for the season. They stay this season was comparatively short due to the fact that an extensive trip through the East and Canada occupied most of the time of the early summer.

—Mr. M. Lapayre and family, summer residents, who spent winter before last at their home on the beach front, will again remain in the midst, patronizing the local schools. Mr. Lapayre will be a daily visitor to New Orleans attending to business.

—Mr. and Mrs. Terrell Perkins have returned home from New Orleans, where they spent two weeks, visiting relatives, and where they intended spending the winter season. They made the trip by auto, using the two ferries between here and New Orleans, and report it a splendid one and desirable.

—Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Moran, well-known residents of Slidell, La., have been spending part of the week in Bay St. Louis visiting relatives and friends, and will continue their visiting tour to other sections of this vicinity and the Coast before returning home. While here they visited Mrs. Moran's sister, Mrs. Geo. J. Toca.

—Mr. and Mrs. E. Weber, of Trinity, Texas, are welcome visitors to our city, and are spending a while at the home of their daughter, Mrs. R. M. Stephens. They have been spending the past six weeks visiting the resorts and larger cities of the North and East and are stopping here while en route home.

—Mrs. R. J. Williams and daughter, Mrs. Nellie Curtis and beautiful infant, came over from Poycune, Miss., Thursday, visiting their many friends in this city. While here they were house guests of Mrs. P. J. McGinn and Mrs. R. W. Taylor, at their home on the beach front.

—Mrs. E. G. Abrahams, Mrs. L. M. Power and little daughter, Effie Graham, who have been summering at Bay View, Michigan, are expected home during the later part of next week. They have been gone six months and their return will be generally welcomed.

—Mr. and Mrs. John Osoinach returned from New Orleans Wednesday night, where they spent the day, combining business with pleasure. They were also visitors to Bloxot Sunday, where they visited their daughter-in-law, Mrs. J. A. Osoinach, who is down from Memphis, Tenn., visiting her mother, Mrs. Campbell, and who is accompanied by Master John Osoinach, whose bright sayings bespeak a bright career.

—Mr. B. Monteleone, who was taken to New Orleans some two weeks since for a major surgical operation, returned to his home Tuesday evening, and is doing exceedingly well, the ordeal having proven a success and already he is feeling the effects of the beneficial results to follow. Many visitors to the home is an evidence of the high esteem and popularity in which Mr. Monteleone is held as a citizen. During his absence the business was creditably conducted by the two sons, Messrs. Joe Monteleone and Anthony Chetta.

—The Victory Airplane scored quite a success Wednesday night when the management presented Zane Grey's famous "U. P. Trail," from the book by that name. The crowd in attendance was one of the record-breaking of the season. It was a splendid picture and was well advertised. The Victory, Mr. Arthur A. Scalfie, manager, has had a fine season, and even though now exhibitions are only given three nights out of every week, a large attendance is noted, and many patrons have expressed regret that the weather forbids a showing in the air dome all the year round. The utmost order and decorum is carried on at any and all times, the place is spacious and the comfort of every patron is always in mind.

The figure 8 frowns on old-fashioned washtub methods. For it is the magic figure in the 1900 Cataract Electric Washer which forces the water back and forth through the clothes, in a perfect figure 8 motion four times oftener than in the ordinary washer.

The swinging wringer is reversible, and also works electrically. The copper tub hasn't one single part in it—nothing to lift out and clean after the wash is finished.

We'd be glad to deliver a 1900 Washer right to your home, and let you try it out. When you have seen what it can do, you may start paying for it on terms to suit your convenience.
